THE GOLD DEMOCRATS

But Few Delegates Have Yet Reached Indianapolis.

THE LEADERS ARE CONFIDENT.

They Claim That Forty-Two States and Territories Will Be Represented in the Convention—The Head of Jefferson Will Be Adopted as Their Emblem—Forecast of the Platform.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—On Wednesday the gold Democrats are to assemble here to repudiate the action of the Democracy at Chicago and launch a new party in the troubled sea of politics, but as yet Indianapolis displays but few of the outward manifestations of an approaching national convention. The hotel corridors, which usually swarm with politicians and guests on the eve of a national convention, are barren and deserted. A few of the managers are on the ground and the advance guard of the newspaper men is already here, but the delegates have not yet begun to put in an appearance. In the nature of things, however, this would be the case, as there is no division as to the purpose of the convention and no scramble after the nominations.

The managers express themselves as more than satisfied with the enthusiasm which they say has been developed in the country and they expect delegations from 42 states and territories to be present. When the movement was originally started there seemed to be a division of sentiment as to whether a ticket should be placed in the field. The Chicago ticket and platform they regarded as Democratic heresy and their primary object was to accomplish the defeat of Bryan and Sewall. Their purpose was to keep alive what they regarded as the embers of the true Democracy and permit such as believed as they did to warm themselves at its fires during the interregnum. The triumph of their old time political adversaries would be their triumph inasmuch as it would give them in the event of Bryan's defeat an opportunity to reorganize the party on what they regard as its true lines.

As the movement grew, however, and obtained what was considered, at least, in the tacit approval of the administration, the feeling that a ticket should be placed in the field for the gold Democrats to rally around grew stronger, and it is accepted as a foregone conclusion that the standard bearers will be named. This is regarded as of much higher importance in the south and middle west than in the east, where those in control believe there is no danger of Bryan's success.

The coming convention has no parallel in the political history of the United States, unless it be in the nomination of O'Connor of New York by the Democrats who, in 1872, refused to follow the Democrats into the Liberal Republican movement which nominated Greeley. It differs, however, from that in that the issue is a critical one, and one upon which both sides believe the future welfare of the country depends.

The managers, therefore, purpose to lay the foundation here for the reorganization of the party in the future. They have practically decided upon the adoption as their emblem for the ballots the head of Jefferson and they expect to frame a platform which, besides repudiating the Chicago platform and nominees will clearly enunciate and reiterate Democratic doctrines as set forth in former platforms. The prevailing sentiment favors a particularly strong plank in favor of a tariff for revenue only.

As to the candidates it is possible that quite a contest will be developed. Quite a number of states have instructed, Wisconsin for Bragg, Nebraska and Michigan for Vilas, Missouri for Broadhead and others for favorite sons, but the gossip here so far seems largely confined to Senator Vilas and Henry Watterston. The latter from his far off sojourn in Switzerland has cabled his willingness to accept and make the fight if named. He was one of the first of the Democrats of national prominence who advised the rejection of the Chicago platform and the nomination of an independent ticket. From Geneva, three days after the convention, he sent a cable to this effect. Ex-Mayor John P. Hopkins of Chicago is out strongly for Watterston and it is believed that the Kentucky delegation will be here for the "star-eyed goddess."

Senor Vilas, somehow, is regarded as the administration's candidate and it is said that General Bragg, for whom the Wisconsin delegation is instructed, would willingly step out of the way. What warrant there is for the assertion that Vilas is the administration's candidate does not appear here. He has announced his intention of retiring from the senate at the end of his present term and could, it is said, afford to make the sacrifice from a personal standpoint. It is conceded on all hands that if Mr. Cleveland would accept the nomination it would be tendered him unanimously. Mr. Bynum said yesterday that he would unquestionably be the strongest man, that his popularity even among the silver Democrats was very great, but that Mr. Cleveland had given no word.

Although it is generally understood that the president is in full sympathy with the convention and its purpose, nothing has yet been received from him. The arrival of Secretary Morton, who will probably be the only member of his official family here, and of Comptroller Eckels is therefore looked forward to anxiously. It is not regarded as improbable that some sort of utterance will come from the president before the convention meets.

Should Vilas or almost any one except Watterson be nominated for president it is thought that Simon Bolivar Buckner of Kentucky will be nominated for vice president on the theory that his nomination would greatly strengthen the gold Democrats in Kentucky.

Ex-Governor Flower of New York has telegraphed his acceptance of the post of temporary chairman, and it is practically decided that Senator Caffery of Louisiana will be permanent chairman of the convention.

The decorations of Tomlinson hall, where the convention will sit, are about completed. In order to give the public an opportunity to listen to the oratory a massmeeting will be held on Wednesday night, which will be addressed by Colonel John R. Fellows and other prominent orators.

SIX-ROUND PRIZE FIGHT.

Jimmy Ryan of Cincinnati Knocked Out by Paddy Purtell of Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 31.—Jimmy Ryan of Cincinnati, after conceding eight pounds in weight to Paddy Purtell of Kansas City, was knocked out by Purtell in the sixth round yesterday afternoon. The battle occurred just across the Kansas line, at a point 20 miles southwest of this city. The men had signed to fight to a finish at welter weights. Ryan weighed in at 145 but Purtell was eight pounds over. After considerable wrangling the Cincinnati boy conceded the weight. Both men were fit as they entered the ring.

Purtell was on the offensive from the beginning, but was unable to do much with Ryan, who used his clever left with good effect. For four rounds the fighting was tame, neither man being able to get in more than a light tap now and then. In the fifth round they mixed up in a manner that was interesting. The sixth round opened with Purtell very aggressive. Ryan came at him fiercely, landing lightly with his left on the face. Paddy crossed with his right, putting a hot one on Jimmy's jaw and the Cincinnati boy went into the dust. He was up in two seconds, however, and immediately put in another lefthander, this time on the body. Purtell came back with his right and again Jimmy went down. This time he was down four seconds. He came up very groggy, only to again run up against Purtell's right. Jimmy bit the dust for the third time and remained down while the timekeepers counted eight. He came up all but helpless. Purtell finished him with a heavy right on the jaw and he was counted out.

REPORT FROM CONSUL MUTH.

Austria's New Sugar Laws Framed in Cooperation With Germany.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The state department has received a report from Consul Muth at Magdeburg, Austria, as to the new Austrian sugar laws, framed in co-operation with Germany. The consumption tax is raised from $4.45 to $5.26 per 100 kilos, and the total amount of export bounty to be granted by the government is increased from $2,023,000 to $3,641,400. The new law went into effect Aug. 1 last.

The effect of this will be to further aid the development of the Austrian sugar industry. Consul Muth says France has advanced her duties on sugar, in order to keep out the competition of German sugars and he predicted that this autumn France will increase her export bounties in order to meet German sugars in the world's markets.

Race War in Progress.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 31.—Reports from Camp Hill, Ala., indicate that a miniature race war is in progress there. Some officers arrested several negroes and started with them to jail when a large body of negro sympathizers attacked them. Neighboring whites came to the rescue of the officers and a spirited fight ensued in which guns, fence rails, rocks and sticks were freely used. The negroes were finally repulsed, four or five men, most of them negroes, are said to have been killed or fatally injured. Details are meager. More trouble is expected.

Boiler Cleaner Terribly Burned.

BUCKLEY, O., Aug. 31.—At the electric light works Anton Gabriel was cleaning an extra boiler, which has a pipe to blow off steam, that is connected with a similar pipe from another boiler, but each has a separate valve. Gabriel was working in the unused boiler and did not know the valve was open. An employee of the works turned on the blow-off and the steam rushed in to where Gabriel was working, literally cooking him. His burns are terrible, but he may recover.

A Man's Brains Crushed Out.

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 31.—Joseph Bulard, aged 54, and head sawyer at Moody & Sons' sawmill, had his brains crushed out Saturday. While at his post of duty the man fell in an epileptic fit. In falling he grabbed for the lever that operates the carriage, starting it. He fell across the track and before assistance came the man's head was caught between the carriage and a heavy timber, crushing in both sides of his head. He leaves a wife and three children.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to The Standard from Madrid says that the Spanish government has approved of the conduct of Captain General Weyler and of his issuance of the orders prohibiting the people of Cuba and foreigners resident in Cuba from having any intercourse with the foreigners outside of the island of Cuba, and also his much discussed decree prohibiting the gathering of the sugar and coffee crops.

RIOTING IS RENEWED

Disorders Again Break Out in Constantinople.

IT LASTED ONLY A FEW MINUTES

A Stampede of the Revolutionists Follows The Outbreak—The Sultan Again Asked by the Foreign Ambassadors to Suppress the Disorders—Americans Are Being Properly Cared For.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 31.—Rioting was renewed in the Galata quarter of this city Saturday night. A sharp fusillade took place between the troops and the Armenian rioters. It lasted only a few minutes, however, and a stampede of the revolutionists followed.

The ambassadors of the foreign powers held a conference and sent a strong joint appeal asking the sultan to suppress the disorders without delay. No reply has been received from the Sublime porte as yet.

ATTACK ON THE BANK.

Evidence That It Will Be Repeated in the Near Future.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 31.—Just before the departure of the leaders of the invasion of the Ottoman bank on Sir Edgar Vincent's yacht after they had negotiated with the Turkish officials and surrendered upon condition that they should be allowed to leave the country, they announced to the dragomans of the different embassies that they intend to continue the agitation until the right of the Armenians should be recognized by the representatives of the foreign powers. Members of the different embassies have received another circular letter from the Armenian revolutionary committee making a similar announcement. It will be remembered that several days before the raid upon the Ottoman bank by the Armenians, threatening letters of a similar character were received by the representatives of the powers, but the foreign diplomats stationed in Constantinople paid no attention to these warnings.

Already several claims for damages to property have been received at the British embassy, the property destroyed being owned by British subjects. As an indication of the number of persons who perished in the recent riots, it is stated that 700 dead bodies were buried in the Chukli cemetery alone. The British charge d'affaires, Michael Herbert, has made special representations to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, concerning the case of two Armenians who were brutally killed just in front of the guard house and before the eyes of the British embassy.

AMERICANS ARE SAFE.

Our War Ships Are Ready to Protect Our Interests.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The crisis in Turkish affairs is being followed closely by officials here. Minister Terrell, at Constantinople, has not transmitted further advices than those of Thursday. Officials at the state department feel that American interests are adequately protected by the presence of the cruisers San Francisco and Marblehead in the Mediterranean waters.

The San Francisco is at Alexandretta and the Marblehead at Genoa. The Minneapolis also belongs to this fleet and can be brought from Queenstown at short notice.

The riotous situation at Constantinople has renewed the attention of officials to the desirability of having the United States represented by a ship nearer Constantinople, within easy reach of the American legation.

English Ask Protection.

ATHENS, Aug. 31.—It is stated here that owing to the recent riots in Constantinople the sultan has postponed his final reply on the Cretan question. The British consul at Heraklion, fearing the consequences, has applied to her majesty's steamship Hood and asked protection for himself and for the English residents of Crete.

CHARLES S. REINHART DEAD.

He Was a Draughtsman and Illustrator of National Reputation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Charles Stanley Reinhart, a draughtsman and illustrator of international reputation, died yesterday at the Players' Club in this city. Mr. Reinhart was born in Pittsburgh in 1844. In 1870 he secured a position with Harper Brothers as draughtsman. In 1880 he went to Paris, and during the six years that he remained in that city he was honored by receiving the gold and silver medals for best draughtsman and illustrator. In 1887 one of his paintings was purchased by the French government.

In 1890 Mr. Reinhart established a studio in this city. He was a member of the academy of design and was a popular after-dinner speaker. Mr. Reinhart leaves wife and two daughters. The funeral services will take place from Calvary church. The remains will be taken to Pittsburgh, where they will be interred in the family vault in Allegheny cemetery.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., Aug. 31.—Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed 1,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to Mr. Charlton of Toronto. The loss is about $200,000, quite fully insured.

RAILROAD BROTHERHOODS UNITE. The Five Great Organizations Will Consider Federation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—A meeting of the representatives of the different railroad brotherhoods was held in this city yesterday to consider the advisability of a federation among the brotherhoods. There were present at the meeting P. M. Arthur, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; Frank P. Sargent, grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; E. E. Clark, chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors; J. R. T. Austin, grand secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railway Telegraphers; G. W. L. Brown, deputy grand chief of the same order, and others prominent in railroad labor organizations.

The result of the meeting was the adoption of the following resolution:

"That it is the sense of the members of the five brotherhoods of railroad organizations in union meeting at Indianapolis assembled, that we are in favor of federation and that it be accomplished as soon as possible."

The adoption of this resolution does not by any means insure the federation, but will undoubtedly renew the agitation in favor thereof to such an extent that the federation will follow in the near future.

Grand Chief Arthur said that he found the sentiment of such federation rapidly growing throughout the country, and he looks upon it as probably but a question of time until it is carried into effect. When it is neither of the existing brotherhoods will lose its autonomy.

There was a massmeeting at Masonic hall in the afternoon which was addressed by all the grand officers present at the morning meeting, and L. R. Coffin of Iowa, ex-railroad commissioner of that state and now president of the home for invalid railroad men. Governor Matthews and Mayor Taggart delivered addresses of welcome to the visitors.

WAS SECOND TO THE CZAR.

Sudden Death of Prince Lobanoff-Rostovskiy While Traveling Near Kiev.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A despatch to The Telegraph from Kieff says that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovskiy, Russian minister of foreign affairs, died suddenly while traveling from Vienna to that place. Prince Lobanoff-Rostovskiy was in company of the czar at the time of his death and his demise was wholly without warning.

Already several claims for damages to property have been received at the British embassy, the property destroyed being owned by British subjects. As an indication of the number of persons who perished in the recent riots, it is stated that 700 dead bodies were buried in the Chukli cemetery alone. The British charge d'affaires, Michael Herbert, has made special representations to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, concerning the case of two Armenians who were brutally killed just in front of the guard house and before the eyes of the British embassy.

The British charge d'affaires, Michael Herbert, has made special representations to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, concerning the case of two Armenians who were brutally killed just in front of the guard house and before the eyes of the British embassy.

Besides his political work Prince Lobanoff-Rostovskiy devoted his leisure hours to the study of and to the writing of works on Russian history. The tour which he had planned to take with the czar through the countries of western Europe was expected to be most far-reaching in results effecting the settlement of the eastern question.

Frances Joseph paid Prince Lobanoff-Rostovskiy the highest honors during the recent visit of the czar to Vienna and his death at the present juncture is regarded as a most dramatic and important event, upsetting as it does all possibilities of conferences between the foreign ministers of the great powers and compelling the czar to change the plans concerning his tour through Germany, France and England.

GERMAN RITUAL MUST GO.

Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias Settle It by a Vote of 106 to 8.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—The German ritual question was disposed of finally at Saturday's session of the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias. At the biennial meeting in Kansas City four years ago the use of the German ritual was forbidden. Since then a few lodges have continued to use it. At this session of the supreme lodge a request was preferred by three or four lodges, composed mostly of Germans, for permission to use the German ritual. Among the lodges which made the request was Schiller of Cincinnati.

At Friday's session a resolution was offered by the representative from Washington, providing that all lodges which used the German ritual previous to the time when its use was forbidden be permitted to use it again. This resolution was referred to the German committee, which submitted a report adverse to the proposition Saturday. The report of the committee was sustained by a vote of 106 to 8. This, it is believed, will settle the question and that it will not be brought up again.

ITALIAN DIGNITY AT STAKE.

Signor Martino Ordered to Brazil to Demand Reparation.

ROME, Aug. 31.—An official note has been issued announcing that, owing to the gravity of the situation, the government has decided to send Signor Martino, formerly Italian minister to Brazil, on a special mission to Rio Janeiro, on board the special warship Piemonte, armed with precise instructions to demand and obtain all the measures which the dignity of Italy and the security of her subjects demand.

After settling the claims arising from the recent disturbances, which must first be satisfied, he will arraign the former claims, which were recently rejected by the Brazilian congress.

ST. PAUL DECORATED

ADVANCE GUARD ARRIVING.

Railroads Prepared For the Great Rush and Claim They Can Handle the Crowd.

The City to Be Illuminated in Honor of the Occasion—Reception and Camp Fires on the Program.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.—From every house-top in this city floats the red, white and blue banner that extends a greeting to the veterans, who have already begun to arrive for the 30th annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, while across the streets and up and down the wide avenues of the residence portion, and from top to bottom of the big office buildings, in all manner of designs, may be seen the national colors.

The railroads have prepared themselves for the expected rush and say they will be able to handle the crowds, not only in coming to the city, but also as they leave, when the biggest rush is looked for. The accommodations committee where information as to quarters can be obtained by correspondence, is holding open rooms in the Mannheimer block.

The first of the important arrivals will be Commander-in-chief I. N. Walker and staff on a special train and will be given a cordial and official welcome by the local posts of the Grand Army. They will be escorted to their headquarters at the Ryan and the work of the encampment will thereafter radiate from that center.

This evening will occur the first of the receptions. There will be two of these, the most important being that to the commander-in-chief and staff at national headquarters from 8 o'clock in the evening until 10.

From 7 till midnight the Minnesota Woman's relief corps will receive at the state capitol. The first illumination of the city in honor of the encampment will occur then and will then be continued every evening during the week.

In 1893, Mr. Joseph Carpenter bought two lots in Clifton for $250. They were assessed that year at $112 and the taxes amounted to 85 cents. In 1894 they were assessed at $200, the taxes being $1.60. Last year they were assessed at $156, the taxes being $1.25. Last Saturday Mr. Carpenter went to pay his taxes and was surprised to find his lots assessed at $350, $150 more than he gave for them, and this too when every knows most everything is greatly depreciated. His taxes this year amount to $3.22. Mr. Carpenter says neither the Assessor nor his deputies ever came to see him this year, and he feels that he has been outrageously treated. The BULLETIN has since heard of another instance where the assessment of property in Orangeburg precinct was increased by the Assistant Assessor, and the owner never knew anything about it until she called to pay her taxes. The same Assistant Assessor made the assessment in both these cases. He may get into serious trouble by such work.

LET'S TREAT ALL ALIKE.

Now, just a word on one or two other declarations in that platform. We say in the platform that the United States should exercise the option vested in the Treasury by law and redeem the obligations of the Government in either gold or silver, whichever the United States may desire to use. I believe, my friends, that a silver dollar that the Government makes a legal tender between the employers and the employees, between those who do business, is good enough to pay to a bondholder or to a noteholder who has a claim against the United States.—Extract from speech by William Jennings Bryan.

THE MEXICAN BUGBEAR.

They tell us that because Mexico has failed to maintain the parity between gold and silver, therefore we must fail. There is just one kind of man who can think this; that is the man who knows so little of geography or history as to think that Mexico is as large as the United States. When you argue that the failure of Mexico proves that we must fail, you simply argue that the United States can not do anything that Mexico has not succeeded in doing. (Applause.) Not only that, but you argue that the United States and Mexico together can not do a thing that Mexico has not done alone.—Extract from speech by William Jennings Bryan.

NOT AN EXTREMIST.

My friends, there is no way of taking the Government out of the clutches of those who have been bleeding it, except for the Government to resume its legal rights and use its silver or its gold, whenever it pleases, whenever it has a dollar to pay. I do not want to be called extreme, but I want to state my position with such emphasis that it will not be mistaken. I believe the American people have a right to have the Treasury Department administered in behalf of all the people instead of in behalf of syndicates, foreign and domestic. [Applause.]

Instead of permitting the financiers of Wall street to call before the immense halls of the Government and tell them what they must do, I believe the time has come when the officials of the Government should call them up and tell them what they must do and make them do it. [Applause.] If this Government is not greater than the bankers of Wall street, it is not a Government at all. [Applause.] If we once concede that we must purchase from them the right to exist, how do we know how much at last they may charge us for letting us live? [Applause and laughter.]

Now, in saying that, my friends, I do not want to be understood as saying one word against those men that I would not say and do not say against any other class of people who assume to be greater than the Government. What I mean to say is this: That when the Creator made man he did not use any superior kind of mud when he made financiers. [Applause and laughter.] My friends, they assume that they are the only ones interested in the money question, and each one must solve it for himself, and that he cannot safely delegate the power of choice for him to any other person. [Applause] Thomas Jefferson said that the art of government was the art of being honest, and the years of history reaching back for six thousand years prove to us that the financiers are not the only people who know what honesty is. [Applause.] He not only said that the art of government was the art of being honest, but he said that the principles of right and wrong are easily discerned and require not the aid of many counsellors. He was right. The great questions of government are in their last analysis simple questions. They resolve themselves at last into questions of right and wrong, and the great common people are as able to distinguish right from wrong as are any other people in this or any other land.—Extract from speech by William Jennings Bryan.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

McKinley Now Against McKinley a Few Years Ago—Bryan Riles the Republicans, But Pleases the People.

It isn't much for a Democrat to do to support a ticket put up by Democrats.

Mr. McKinley shall have to wake up from his lethargy on the money question if he would keep pace with Mr. Bryan.

This constant talk on the finances by Mr. Bryan is what rules the Republican managers and takes with the people.

Mr. Bryan doesn't seem to be giving offense to any but millionaires and hide-bound Republicans by his splendid speeches.

The attention of Republicans is so much taken up with Mr. Bryan and his utterances that they hardly have time for their own affairs.

Any Democrat who supposes he is making any sacrifice by supporting the Democratic nominee for the Presidency is simply not worthy the name.

The country has very much more to fear from millionaires and the very wealthy than it can possibly have from so-called anarchists and socialists.

When the opponents of the Democratic ticket have no arguments but abuse and slander to use, it's a pretty fair conclusion that they are in a close place.

It's a very empty honor to be known as a gold man, and yet at the same time known almost certainly not to have seen a gold coin in twelve months or more.

How may Mr. McKinley expect people to believe he is sincere in his present utterances on the money question when they are directly antagonistic to his record.

Mr. Bryan is simply flattening out his opponents by his matchless arguments against gold as a single standard. They have proved as malleable in his hands as the metal that they favor.

Mr. Hill will do nothing more than his plain duty when he may come out for the Democratic ticket. All the honor and position he ever had were bestowed on him by Democrats and Democratic conventions.

Mr. Bryan may possibly not know any better the needs of the county and the people in their present distress than does Mr. McKinley, but he certainly shows himself more in sympathy with them by the manner in which he is championing their cause.

Housekeeping.

If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman in the world. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health, in nine cases out of ten comes from derangements of the delicate, feminine organs of generation.

The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right, except in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures safely, permanently.

The handsomest line of Gloria Silk, Sun or Rain umbrellas here. If you know Umbrella values, you are the woman we want to inspect this stock, because you can appreciate it. Next week we offer all our 1.50 Umbrellas for 1.19. They are not ordinary 1.50 Umbrellas, either. At that price people called them money-savers. If you have present or prospective umbrella needs, don't buy until you see ours. Made with Paragon frame, steel rod, slender ferrule, natural handle. And the small price isn't an umbrella fault but a profit-shaver.

List of the Papers and Magazines Ordered.
Interesting Games—Fine Reading Room.

The Executive Committee of the local Young Men's Christian Association have just ordered an excellent list of periodicals for use in the present temporary quarters of the organization in the Cox Building. This list will include the following publications:

MONTHLYES.
Harper's, Century, Review of Reviews, Outing, Engineering Magazine, Comopolitan, McClures, St. Nicholas, The Strand, Physical Education, Missionary Review, Ladies' Home Journal.

WEEKLIES.
Scientific American, Harper's Weekly, Harper's Round Table, Youth's Companion, Puck, Life, Young Men's Era, Ram's Horn.

Through the generosity of the publishers, the BULLETIN and the Ledger have already been placed in the rooms. The association is also indebted to Mr. Wm. H. Lynch for the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, and to Mr. John Taylor for the Louisville Courier-Journal.

The committee have also subscribed for the New York Herald, and to this list of five dailies, others will be added later on. The committee will be glad to order any standard publication, not included in the above list, for which there is sufficient demand made by the young men.

The local churches and young people's societies will be asked to donate their own denominational papers, which will insure a complete and impartial list of religious publications.

Later on a complete outfit of first-class newspaper files and racks and magazine binders will be secured; and it is safe to say that our local association will have one of the best reading rooms established in this section of the State.

Two fine crokinole boards have been purchased, which together with archarena, chess and checkers, will afford ample amusement for the members and other visitors.

Commencing with Wednesday next, the association room will be open daily, and the young men of the city are cordially invited to visit and make use of the association privileges. Friends of the work are also invited to call.

The General Secretary expects to be out of town to-day and Tuesday, attending a gathering of secretaries at Covington.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

A McKinleyite Who Finds Too Much Silver Sentiment Too Suit Him—The Outlook in Kentucky.

[Cincinnati Enquirer August 27.]

Mr. W. E. Tingle, of Zanesville, Ohio, who travels for a big Louisville tobacco house, is at the Gibson. He is against Bryan.

"But," said he, "there is too much silver talk in Ohio and Indiana to suit me. It makes my blood tingle with uneasiness. I hear it everywhere I go. One of my Republican customers at Ft. Wayne, told me that he was in St. Joseph County, Indiana, recently, and the whole blessed thing was going for free silver. There is too much silver about Zanesville to please me. I don't like it."

Judge Mitchell C. Alford, of Lexington, Ky., thinks the third ticket will be Palmer, of Illinois, and Buckner, of Kentucky. He says that at least 10,000 Democrats who have not voted for some years will turn out for Bryan. The State only a few years ago had a normal Democratic majority of over 40,000, and Tilden carried it by 60,000. A multitude of Democrats who would not go with the Populists and were mad at the party management in the State will come back with a whoop this time for Bryan and free silver."

THAT DEBATE AT CYNTHIANA.

Col. W. LaRue Thomas Scored a Signal Triumph Over Judge Pugh at the Opening of the Campaign.

A week ago to-day Col. W. LaRue Thomas, Democratic nominee for Congress, opened the campaign at Cynthiana. By special invitation, Judge Pugh, his Republican opponent, was present, and was accorded a division of time. Here is what the Cynthiana Democrat says of the debate: "The debate was the formal opening of the campaign in the Ninth district. That it was a signal triumph for Col. Thomas, no one can deny. He toyed with Judge Pugh throughout the afternoon, but whenever necessary delivered a sledge-hammer blow that straightened the Judge flat on the floor. No speaker for years has created so favorable a first impression in Harrison County as did Col. Thomas, and the majority that he will receive in November will be simply immense."

"The speech was one of the most forcible and timely that our people have ever heard. Col. Thomas presented his arguments in a bold and commanding style that carried the audience as if by storm, and his round shot left terrible rents in the strongholds of the enemy. With eloquent flow of language, quick and ready repartee, he passed rapidly from point to point and made every point a winning one."

"A rather thrilling scene was enacted when Judge Pugh caught Col. Thomas around the waist and both stood on the platform, for a moment, locked in each other's arms. Judge Pugh wished to put the question fairly and squarely whether Col. Thomas, if elected, would vote for free coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1.

"Col. Thomas stepped to the front of the platform and in a most dramatic style declared that he would. The crowd arose as a man and cheered to the echo.

"One question more," said Judge Pugh, with his arm still around Thomas; "will you vote for and stand by every other proposition in the Chicago platform?"

"When I accepted the nomination," declared Col. Thomas, "I pledged myself to the support of the Democratic party. And now I will say with all the emphasis that I can command that I accept the platform. I will defend it with all the power that is in me, and when the people send me to Congress on the third day of next November, I will use all my energies, all my powers and all my endeavors to put that platform on the statute book!"

"Bedlam broke loose. The crowd yelled and cheered and stamped its feet; hats were thrown into the air and the mass of men swayed and screamed until stopped from sheer exhaustion.

"Mr. Pugh presented rather a sorry spectacle in the debate. He is getting rather theatrical in his old days, however, and his folding Col. Thomas in his arms at various and sundry stages of the debate proved quite touching. Not nearly so touching as Col. Thomas' rejoinder. The Colonel touched every sore spot on Mr. Pugh's epidermis."

"Mr. Pugh was certainly right when he said he would pull Mr. Thomas' coat tails in November. The fact is Mr. Pugh will have an opportunity to view the entire race from the rear."

"Congressman Pugh, if he will allow the suggestion, should write out a little speech of some kind and stick strictly to the text. He is not made for a joint debate, and LaRue Thomas seems to have no mercy."

VICTORIA LEROY'S AWFUL DEATH.

The Aeronaut Falls 2,000 Feet and is Instantly Killed, at St. Louis, Friday.

Victoria Leroy, the aeronaut who gave a balloon ascension and parachute drop here last 4th of July, met with an awful death at St. Louis Friday afternoon.

In some way the parachute became detached from the balloon when less than 100 feet from the ground, leaving her suspended from the bar.

Before she could release herself, the balloon was at such a height that death was inevitable.

She clung to the bar as long as her strength held out.

The airship had reached a height of 2,000 feet when her hold was finally released, and she fell with frightful rapidity, striking fifty yards from the point of ascent.

Her real name was Hibbard. Her husband was present and witnessed the awful scene.
